

Cocalico School District
Year-at-a-Glance - Curriculum Overview

Department: Social Studies

Course: Social Studies

Grade Level: 3

Big Ideas

- Communities are alike and different and found all over the world.
- Different communities have different landforms and bodies of water. People change and adapt to their surroundings.
- Every community has a unique history. Some features of a community change, while others stay the same, over time.
- People depend on one another to produce, buy, and sell goods and services. Good decision-making helps the economy of a family or a community.
