Parents as Teachers/ Early Learning Mentor Program

Thanks to Real Life Ministries, generous donations from Cocalico organizations and individuals, and a grant from the United Way through CAP of Lancaster, the Cocalico School District is able to offer this brand new program to our youngest Cocalico Eagles. Beginning in the 2020-21 school year, a Family Development Specialist/Early Learning Mentor will be available to assist in the implementation of the of this program. Families living in the Cocalico community with a child prenatal to 2 years old are eligible to enroll. This is a FREE program offering a variety of services to families with young children.

This program will focus on:

- Teaching of effective parenting skills
- Providing early intervention
- Offer support for kindergarten readiness
- Assisting families in utilizing necessary community resources

Some of the services that will be offered to qualified families include:

- Personal home visits
- Child screenings
- Parent workshops
- Resource referrals
