

Senior Citizen's Property Assistance

Persons 65 years of age or older, widows/widowers 50 years of age and older, and the permanently disabled can apply for a property tax/rent rebate from the Commonwealth. In order to claim benefits, you must first pay your taxes. You will need a signed receipt of the taxes paid. A copy of your cancelled check will not be accepted by the Commonwealth. You may send a self-addressed stamped envelope to Cocalico Tax Account, PO Box 177, Denver PA 17517 requesting a receipt, or call the tax office at (717) 336-1406 for a receipt to be printed that you may pick up at the office. For an application and information or help with completing the application, please contact one of the offices below:
